Summer 2020

Our Community

In the last few months, we've all had to navigate unprecedented challenges that we never imagined we'd be facing. Your understanding, flexibility and loyalty have filled us with immense gratitude. Gratitude for your understanding as we asked you to adapt to changes we made to keep you, our members, staff and our community safe. For your flexibility in embracing digital channels to interact with us, instead of visiting our office. For your loyalty in working together – then, now, and in the future – to help us meet your needs. As an essential service, we're grateful we can use our resources to best serve our members, staff and community. Quickly transitioning our staff to serve members remotely when possible helped us achieve our top priority: continuing to provide services while keeping everyone safe. And we'll continue to respond with changes needed to support our members, because in times like these, we have an obligation to try to do our very best. Most of all, we're grateful for the opportunity to continue serving and assisting you during this extraordinary time, now and in the future. And remember we are in this together. With much gratitude, your Golden Valley Federal Credit Union Team.
